¹ Note: Plan N pays 100% of the Part B co-insurance, except for a co-pay of up to $20 for some office visits and up to a $50 co-pay for emergency room visits that don't result in an inpatient admission.

² Benefit is 80% and beneficiaries are responsible for 20% after the $250 annual deductible with a $50,000 lifetime maximum. Benefits are defined as medically necessary emergency care services beginning during the first 60 days of each trip outside the U.S.

³ For Plans K and L, after you meet your out-of-pocket yearly limit and your yearly Part B deductible ($226 in 2023), the Medicare supplement plan pays 100% of covered services for the rest of the calendar year.

Benefits and costs vary depending on the plan you choose.

Learn more about the cost considerations for Medicare supplement plans.

Plans A and B: Lower Benefits, Higher Out-of-Pocket

Medicare Supplement Plan A offers just the Basic Benefits while Plan B covers Basic Benefits plus a benefit for the Medicare Part A deductible. The Medicare Part A deductible could be one of your largest out-of-pocket expenses if you need to spend time in a hospital. Plans A and B generally have higher out-of-pocket costs for things like Skilled Nursing Facility Coinsurance, Medicare Part B Excess Charges, and Foreign Travel Emergency Care.

Plans C[†], F[†] and G: Higher Benefit Level, Higher Premium

Plans C, F and G offer the most supplemental coverage, paying many of your out-of-pocket costs for Medicare-approved services. Consider one of these plans if you are willing to pay a monthly premium that is typically higher in exchange for more covered benefits and lower out-of-pocket costs.

†You may only apply for plans C and F if you were first eligible for Medicare before 2020.

Plans K and L: Lower Premium, Cost Sharing

Plans K and L are cost-sharing plans offering lower monthly premiums. The premiums are typically lower because, for some services, they pay a percentage of the coinsurance instead of the full coinsurance amount. Once the out-of-pocket limit is reached, these plans pay 100% of covered services for the rest of the calendar year.

Plan N: Co-Pay Structure, Mid-Range Premium

Plan N covers the Part B coinsurance, but you pay copayments for covered doctor office and emergency room visits in exchange for a monthly premium that tends to be more mid-range.

Why consider a Medicare supplement insurance plan?

Medicare supplement insurance plans help pay some of the out-of-pocket costs that Medicare does not pay – giving you more complete coverage than Medicare alone.

With Medicare supplement plans:

- You're able to keep your own doctor who accepts Medicare patients.
- See any specialist without a referral.
- There are no claim forms to fill out.
- Coverage goes with you anywhere in the U.S. when you travel.
