² Note: Plan N pays 100% of the Part B co-insurance, except for a co-pay of up to $20 for some office visits and up to a $50 co-pay for emergency room visits that don't result in an inpatient admission.

³ Benefit is 80% and beneficiaries are responsible for 20% after the $250 annual deductible with a $50,000 lifetime maximum. Benefits are defined as medically necessary emergency care services beginning during the first 60 days of each trip outside the U.S.

Benefits and costs vary depending on the plan you choose.

Lower Benefits, Higher Out-of-Pocket (Plans A and B)

Medicare Supplement Plan A offers just the Basic Benefits while Plan B covers Basic Benefits plus a benefit for the Medicare Part A deductible, which could be one of the largest out-of-pocket expenses if you need to spend time in a hospital. Plans A and B have lower monthly premiums with higher-out-of-pocket costs for things like Skilled Nursing Facility Coinsurance, Part B Excess Charges, and Foreign Travel Emergency Care.

Higher Benefit Level, Higher Premium (Plans C[†], F[†] and G)

Plans C, F and G offer the most supplemental coverage, paying many of your out-of-pocket costs for Medicare-approved services. Consider these plans if you are willing to pay a higher monthly premium in exchange for more healthcare coverage and lower out-of-pocket costs.

[†]Please note: Only applicants first eligible for Medicare before 2020 may purchase Plans C and F.

Lower Premium, Cost Sharing (Plans K and L)

Plans K and L are cost-sharing plans offering lower monthly premiums because they pay a percentage of the coinsurance instead of the full coinsurance amount. Once the out-of-pocket limit is reached, these plans pay 100% of covered services for the rest of the calendar year.

Co-Pay Structure, Mid-Range Premium (Plan N)

Plan N covers the Part B coinsurance, but you pay copayments for covered doctor office and emergency room visits in exchange for a mid-range monthly premium.

Why consider a Medicare supplement insurance plan?

Medicare supplement insurance plans help pay some of the out-of-pocket costs that Medicare does not pay – giving you more complete coverage than Medicare alone.

With Medicare supplement plans:

- You're able to keep your own doctor who accepts Medicare patients.
- See any specialist without a referral.
- There are no claim forms to fill out.
- Coverage goes with you anywhere in the U.S. when you travel.
